

This handsome desk would be a credit to any office. Made of selected quartered white oak. Also mahogany. Double top and writing bed. Extra number of drawers, pigeon holes, document boxes, &c. A complete private letter file, occupying four of the small drawers on the left. Cut-glass ink-wells and paper-cup.

E CO.
5 Stone St., next Produce Exchange.

Style In Boys' Clothing

Does not depend so much upon fineness of material and the amount of work upon it, as it does upon the way it is cut, and put together.

When this is done by Boys' Tailors, it's naturally done right,

And that is where the Style in our boys' clothing comes from. It adds nothing to the cost.

Sailor Suits, full weight
 Serget, handsomely embold- 4.85 to 6.50
 ered.

Jacket Suits, all wool. 5.00 to 8.50

Yeahter Suits, (Long trousers), newest design of chavits and casimero, 10.00 to 15.00

Stallor Collar Bonfers, wool covert mixtures and fast color chinchilla, 5.00 to 8.50

60-62 West 23d St.

Pierce subside, and then county after county announced that it did not believe that Mr. Conway was anything but a good Democrat, and they seconded his nomination. Among these counties were Saratoga, St. Lawrence, Oswego, Warren, Chenango and Cayuga, and made by when he finished the nomination was after by acclamation. Only one place was left to fill: Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., had claimed that as his own. The place was that of State Engineer. Delegate Roche of Troy nominated Martin Schenck in a little speech that he anything, more promptly than the others. Before his nomination was completed most of the crowd of spectators and at least half of the delegates had left the convention. It was not until that Chairman Schraub could do to induce the rest to stay until the resolutions providing for the filling of vacancies on the ticket and the delegates had left the convention. It was not until to nominate next year, in case there should be any vacancies in the State offices, were passed. The convention adjourned sine die at 4:33 p. m. and within half an hour the rush for home had begun.

THE SILVER MEN ANGRY.

They Say They Will Put a Third Ticket

SYRACUSE, Sept. 29.—The refusal of the Democratic Convention to reaffirm the Chicago platform had the effect of a red rag on a bull on the silver men who are gathered here. They are made clear through, and they say that they will immediately put a third ticket in the field, filled from top to bottom with candidates who believe in the ultimate triumph of the 16 to 1 principle. The Committee on Organization, composed of one member from each Senate district, will meet to-morrow night in the Union Square Hotel, New York, and the ticket will then be made up. H. M. McDonald, who was Chairman of the conference, said tonight that there was some sentiment at first among the silver men in favor of indorsing certain of the nominees on the Democratic ticket, but that the idea was abandoned at the informal meeting of the leaders. He said that the silver men are all red hot now, he said, for a full independent ticket, and the Committee on Organization is going to give them what they want. Mr. McDonald denied that he was to lead the ticket. He said he would not accept a nomination for any office, and that should the Democratic ticket be nominated by the Democrats to-day, an exceedingly weak one, but he refused to go into details.

"A Tammany man told me to-day," he said, "that the only Van Wyck not now provided for in the mail who lives in New-England. He said that he knew of no one else, and was willing to go to see if some place could not be found for her."

NEW STATE COMMITTEE.
Hill Seems to Have Captured It—Frank
Campbell Chosen Chairman.
SYRACUSE, Sept. 20.—Ex-Senator David B.

Hill seems to have captured the State Committee. At a meeting of the new committee, which was held in the Yates Hotel immediately after the convention, Frank Campbell of Steuben, an old-time friend of Mr. Hill, was unanimously elected chairman in place of Elliot Danforth, who was nominated for Lieutenant-governor. John N. Carlisle of the Thirty-fifth district succeeded John B. Judson as Secretary, and Charles E. De Forest was selected as Clerk in place of Calvin Huxon. The new committee is constituted as follows:

First, Peter Belmont; Second, John W. Macdonald; Third, Hugh MacLaughlin; Fourth, John W. Weber; Fifth, Michael J. Coffey; Sixth, James Shevlin; Seventh, P. H. McCarran; Eighth, Anthony Bulgare; Ninth, Edward Gillman; Tenth, Patrick Diver; Eleventh, William Schner; Twelfth, William Suber; Thirteenth, James Boyle; Fourteenth, Charles F. Murphy; Fifteenth, John H. Flanagan; Sixteenth, J. Scannell; Seventeenth, Daniel F. McMahon; Eighteenth, Thomas J. Dunn; Nineteenth, Lawrence Delmore; Twentieth, John Walsh; Twenty-first, Louis F. Haffen; Twenty-second, Andrew C. Fields; Twenty-third, Thomas F. Gorman; Twenty-fourth, Emma; Twenty-fifth, Clara; Twenty-sixth, Twenty-sixth, blank; Twenty-seventh, Benjamin F. Spraker; Twenty-eighth, Edward D. Cutler; Twenty-ninth, I. J. Van Alstyne; Thirtieth, Francis J. Molloy; Thirty-first, James P. Cunningham; Thirty-second, John W. Macdonald; Thirty-third, Beckwith; Thirty-fourth, John H. Flanagan; Thirty-fifth, John S. Carlike; Thirty-sixth, John F. Gargner.

Thirty-seventh, Charles N. Bulger; Thirty-eighth, Stephen C. Normale; Thirty-ninth, M. P. Conway; Fortieth, S. S. Taylor; Forty-first, Frank Campbell; Forty-second, John Flannagan; Forty-third, Edwin T. Hickey; Forty-fourth, blank; Forty-fifth, George W. Balen; Forty-sixth, Harry W. Breckinridge; Forty-seventh, John J. Kennedy; Forty-eighth, William S. Mon; Forty-ninth, Frank Illig; Fiftieth, Thomas H. Dowd.

In Monroe county, could not agree on a committeeman, three of them being Hill men and three anti-Hill men. It is said, however, that a Hill man will be elected to fill the place. One of the anti-Hill delegates, it is said, has been won over to the opposition by a promise to vote for a personal friend of his who is strongly in sympathy with Senator Hill. Although the election of Mr. Campbell as Chairman was unanimous, it was said that his selection was not decided upon until the New York and Kings county members found out that Senator Hill had a clear majority of two in the committee. Many changes were made in the membership.

2. of the committee to-day; in fact, when the